Purity Covenant

(For the Couple)

From the world's viewpoint, maintaining sexual purity before marriage seems like cruel and unusual punishment. Many people consider it strange if a couple does not sleep together before they are married. "After all," they say, "shouldn't they find out whether they are sexually compatible?" However, God's word is very clear about how we ought to act as Christians. Please see the following verses that express God's perspective of sex. (Exodus 20:14; 2 Timothy 2:22; Ephesians 1:4; 1 Peter 1:14-16; 2 Peter 1:5-7; Hebrews 13:4; Philippians 4:8; and Romans 16:19.)

Sexual purity is especially difficult during the engagement period. You have declared your commitment and you naturally want to consummate the relationship. You may even feel married at times. Yet what better opportunity to establish your relationship and build trust in one another by obeying God than on this key point.

Sexual purity means much more than not having sexual intercourse before marriage. Many couples avoid intercourse but are still sexually intimate. Look again at the verses previously mentioned. Scripture defines sexual purity as being morally excellent. And moral excellence means being holy. It means avoiding the appearance of evil. It means purity of thought as well as purity of deed. It means protecting one another's innocence from being stained by evil.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-8 "For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God; and that no man transgress and defraud his brother in the matter because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also told you before and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for the purpose of impurity, but in sanctification. Consequently, he who rejects this is not rejecting man but the God who gives His Holy Spirit to you."

1 Corinthians 6:18-20 "Flee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been bought with a price: therefore, glorify God in your body."

Acts 24:16 "In view of this, I also do my best to maintain always a blameless conscience both before God and before men."

Purity Covenant

(For the Accountability Partners)

By signing this contract, I, the accountability partner, am agreeing with the following statements:

I believe that Jesus Christ is my personal Lord and Savior (and the only way to heaven is through faith in Jesus Christ).

I believe that the Bible is the Word of God, useful for edification, reproof, guidance, hope, and faith.

I agree to hold this individual/couple accountable to having a Godly premarital relationship.

I agree to meet with one or both individuals (groom to meet with male accountability partner, bride to meet with female accountability partner) weekly to ask them tough questions about how they are doing in keeping each other sexually pure.

I love this individual/couple, my brother/sister in Christ, and I am committed to demonstrate my love by helping them design a plan on how to resist the temptation to have premarital sex (the exact thing that will ruin their relationship if no boundaries are established).

I have read this entire contract and I am aware of what is expected from this couple until they are married.
